

Elsevier Spring 2024 webinar schedule

We're pleased to announce our schedule of webinars and "drop-in" sessions, each developed to share insights with researchers, research managers and librarians towards advancing their work.

Our webinars usually run for an hour, and the recordings are available at the convenience of your schedule – simply register to get the recording. A list of upcoming live sessions and past webinar recordings is available on the Elsevier Online Training Hub, but here is a preview of upcoming events conducted in English.
